

ACPC News

'Oh What a year! Year in Review

Greetings from ACPC!

Well, where do I start...It has been a busy year...In just 1 year alone, ACPC experienced: 11 new members, 7 mounted and 8 unmounted meetings, a Doug Payne tour, our first ever eventing camp, 4 rallies, 2 ratings, 1 after-hours tack store visit, 1 Hitchcock Woods trail ride, 2 games demos at Sunday polo, 2 games practices, 3 mucking fundraisers, 10 board meetings, 1 pool party, launching of new Junior Pony Club program, new apparel web store, new website, and a partridge in a pear tree! Phew! It took a village, but with your help, we had a tremendous year!

Upcoming Events

Dec 28- ACPC Christmas Party- @The Riding School 6-9 p.m.

Jan 4: ACPC Board Meeting 7-9 p.m.

Jan 6- Hunt Breakfast

Jan 12- New Member/Parent Meeting 6:30-9:00 p.m.

Jan 15- ACPC Rating Clinic @the Vista

Jan 27- Mounted/Unmounted Meeting @the Vista

Feb 3- D Rating @the Vista

Feb 10- Mounted/Unmounted @ the Vista

ACPC MEETS Hunny—USEF
Horse of the year!

What a neat pair-
Hunny with Susan
Stafford at the Katydid
Combined Driving
Event in November in Windsor.

ACPC MUCKS FOR BUCKS!!!

One of our major fundraising projects is stripping stalls
after horse shows.
We made over $2000 this past year mucking!
Way to go ACPC!

Remember! It's not too late to give end-of-year monetary donations to help young riders become better riders through the Pony Club Professional instruction
Program. Please consider donating today-
<https://aikencountyponyclub.org>

For more information, please contact:

Kim Wienholt, aikencountyponyclub.org or visit our website at

<https://aikencounty.ponyclub.org>

or visit us on Facebook!

803 574-2707

PO BOX 7171

Aiken SC 29804